That was before my time...I don't show anything in our Asana passwords...
I'll keep looking though

Hey all - I need your help: I cannot figure out our LinkedIn login info. I contacted customer service to add myself as admin, but the owner of the page has a downtownla.com email. This means I can't be made the admin by anyone else but the person whose email it's connected to.

Does anyone have an idea of who on the DCBID side that could be?

Thanks,
